VOYAMAGAZINE.COM
VOYA (Voice of Youth Advocates) is the leading magazine dedicated to the needs of teen/young adult librarians, the advocacy of young adults and the promotion of young adult literature and reading.

- VOYA publishes the most authoritative and influential reviews for librarians of young adult/YA literature. Some 350 books are reviewed in each issue of VOYA, more than 2,200 per year.
- VOYA’s Top Shelf Fiction and Nonfiction Honors for middle school books are announced each year in the February and August issues, respectively. VOYA reviews are used by many of the leading booksellers serving libraries.
- Regular columns and feature articles by highly-respected young adult library leaders provide information, not only on books and reading, but also on library programming, gaming, professional development, young adult author interviews and profiles, and other topics vital to librarians serving young adults.
- VOYA’s digital edition, available free to print subscribers and as a digital-only subscription, provides a fully searchable version of the magazine, including all advertisements and announcements.

VOYA was one of the earliest and remains one of the strongest advocates for intellectual freedom and equal access to information for teens.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS
VOYA reserves the right to refuse materials and require publication prepayment. The advertiser agrees to assume all liability for content of ads and must be fully authorized for use of the ad’s content, including, but not limited to, names, pictures, testimonials, and any copyrighted or trademarked material. In consideration of the publication of advertisements, the advertiser will indemnify and hold the publisher harmless from any loss or expense arising from an advertisement.

All claims for errors in advertisements must be made in writing and received within ten days of publication and will be considered only for the first insertion of the advertisement containing the error. An error, which does not materially affect the value or content of an advertisement, will not qualify for a credit, nor will any credit be allowed if the customer has seen and approved a proof, or a proof was not supplied.
